An Ordinance granting to the Western Union Telegraph Company the right to erect poles and stretch wires thereon:

The People of ^{the} City of Albany do Ordain as follows:

Section 1. That there be and hereby granted to the Western Union Telegraph Company, a Corporation formed and existing under and by virtue of the laws of the State of New York, its successors and assigns, the right, privilege and authority, to locate, place, erect, maintain and use in the streets and alleys within the City of Albany, telegraph poles with the necessary cross-arms, and to ^{fasten wires} stretch ~~wires~~ on ^{on said poles} said wires through said streets and alleys for the purpose of transmitting and conducting Electric currents such as may be necessary in order to properly carry on a general telegraph business; provided however that all poles that may hereafter be erected by said Company within the corporate limits shall be dressed and painted.

Section 2. That the said poles shall be constructed and erected in a neat and workman like manner and shall be placed at such depth in the ground as to render them safe from all danger of careening or falling and said poles shall be placed under the direction of the Superintendent of streets or other like officer of the city so as not to interfere with any objects lawfully existing in said streets or alleys.

Section 3. That whenever it shall be necessary, in the erection of said poles, to take up any portion of the side-walk or dig up the ground at the sides or corners of said streets or alleys, then the said Company, its successors or assigns, shall after said poles are erected, without delay, remove any debris that may have been placed therein in the erection of said poles, and shall put such sidewalk, street, or alley in as good condition as it was before the same was taken up or disturbed.

Section 4. That whenever it shall be necessary in the erection,

That whenever any person has obtained permission to use any of the streets of the City for the purpose of removing any building, the said Company its successors or assigns, upon forty eight hours notice from such person, shall raise or remove any of the said wires which may obstruct the removal of such building, so as to allow the free and unobstructed passage of the same. Such notice shall be in writing and served by any person competent to be a witness in a Civil action against said Company, its successors or assigns, or its, or their representative or agent, and in case of its, or their refusal or failure to comply with such notice, the Superintendent of Streets or other like officer of the City, shall raise or remove said wires at the expense of said Company, its successors or assigns, for the purpose aforesaid.

Section 5 That the City of Albany hereby reserves the right to alter, change or modify this Ordinance or any of its provisions, having due regard to the rights of said Western Union Telegraph Company.

Section 6, This Ordinance shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and approval by the Mayor.

Passed by the Council the tenth day of December A. D. 1889.

Approved by the Mayor the 17th day of December A. D. 1889.

J. L. Corran
Mayor.
