ORDINANCE NO. 664

BARRETT, ALBANY, DISTRICT

Ord 664

Rep 1506

An ordinance declaring it unlawful for any person to carry or haul any intoxicating liquor through the streets, alleys or other public place in the City of Albany, except the packages in which such intoxicating liquors are shipped into the City of Albany and providing a penalty therefor.

The People of the City of Albany Do Ordain As Follows:

Section 1. Any person or persons who shall carry or haul through any street, alley, avenue or other public place within the City of Albany any intoxicating liquors of any kind except the packages in which such intoxicating liquors are shipped into the City of Albany, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor.

Section 2. Whenever any peace officer of the City of Albany or the County of Saratoga has reasonable grounds to believe that any person or persons are carrying any intoxicating liquors within the City of Albany other than said packages in which such intoxicating liquors are shipped into the City of Albany, said peace officer shall have power to search said person or persons or the things carried by said person or persons or the conveyance used by said person or persons and in case intoxicating liquors are found being carried or hauled in violation of Section 1 of this ordinance, the said intoxicating liquors together with such person violating Section 1 of this ordinance shall be taken before the Recorder of the City of Albany and a complaint filed against such person by said officer.

Section 3. Any person violating any of the provisions of this ordinance shall upon conviction thereof before the Recorder's Court be fined not less than $10.00 nor more than $100.00 or be imprisoned in the city jail not less than five nor more than fifty days or by both such fine and imprisonment at the discretion of the court and said court in case of the conviction shall order publicly destroyed any and all intoxicating liquors found carried or hauled in violation of this ordinance.

Section 4. Whereas this ordinance is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health and safety, an emergency exists and an emergency is hereby declared to exist and this ordinance shall have full force from and after its passage by the council and approval by the Mayor.
